

Summits and Snow Leopards Stories from Everest

Join the Snow Leopard Conservancy in celebrating the return of these endangered cats to Mount Everest

Sunday, May 5, 2013
12:30-4pm

Conservancy Director Rodney Jackson, world expert on these endangered cats, will present recent accomplishments in their conservation.

Broughton Coburn, authority on the Himalayas, will take you on an “armchair” journey to the world’s highest mountain. Brot lived in Nepal for several decades, and wrote the best-selling Everest: Mountain Without Mercy and (with Jamling Tenzing Norgay) Touching My Father’s Soul. Brot’s latest offering, The Vast Unknown: America’s First Ascent of Everest, is due out from Crown in April.

Delicious hand crafted bites and delicious local wines will be served. Treasures will be offered at our Central Asian bazaar and silent auction.

Animal ambassadors will greet you.
